Fill in purchase data and shipping(Shipping is expensive which I pointed out to them)

On the comments tell them you want to proof the item before they create and ship. Looks like it takes a couple of days to get the proof to your email. This is an embroidered, not silk screen I was told.

If the above is confusing, call them number on the screen, and they will walk you through the process, they were very helpful.

*Look at daily deals, some of them are very good. I ordered a hat for $4.99(regular price $19.99) and that helped with the shipping.
